By Frederick Law Olmsted.

Author of "A Journey in the Seaboard Slave States," "A Journey in Tease," "Walks and Faiks of an American Farmer in England," etc.

£2 pp. 12mo. Cloth. Price $125.

This volume completes the series of "Our Slave States," in which the object of the author has been to describe what was most interesting answing, and instructive to him during a journey of fourteen months through these States, undertaken for the purpose of studying the characteristics of the country and people. A keen and impartial observer, and a very graceful and attractive writer, he is acknowledged to have presented in the previous volumes of this series the most intelligent and interesting account of the region they represent that has yet been given to the public. The present volume, embracing the interior Slave States, completes the account.

The series now includes

GET THE BEST. JUST PUBLISHED, REPUBLICAN GAMPAIGN SONGSTER, REPUBLICAN GAMPAIGN SONOSTERS, By THOMAS DREW.

This is by far the best Republican Song-Book yet presented to the people. It is written by a gentleman who compiled the most successful one published in the Fremont Campaign; and the Songs are all fresh, and have the merit of being good poerty and sound sones, beside being barmonious, a quality which other works of the kind rarely possess. Another feature is, that a time is set for every song. In a handsome 18mo, pamphlet of 64 pages,
